AIM OF THE COURSE: To introduce students to literary texts and their unique conventions and contours – the linguistic, the social, the cultural and the political. - c. To recognize diverse points of view within a single text and to understand the rationale of polyphony
- d. To prepare students in reading literary/cultural texts closely, beyond the literal.
- e. To enable students to recognize the dominant voice/s within the text and its agendas
- f. To encourage questioning the text in order to perceive marginalized voices – the voices of the child, Dalit, transgender and female
- g. To comprehend how the subaltern perspectives question and counter the privileged voices in the mainstream texts
